- Come to the Table

This Life I Live, a truly inspirational story written by Rory Feek, has received top reviews. This is the real-life story of a man searching for meaning and security in a world that offered neither. And it's the story of a man who finally gives it all to a power higher than himself and soon meets a young woman who will change his heart forever. Also added is the DVD To Joey, With Love.

The school year is winding down and soon we will all be in "summer mode". It brings another kind of busy to our lives...but hopefully we all will get a chance to take time out to relax and grab a book and read or have a family movie night. The Gloria Dei Library will be open all summer during the office hours for you to come in and check out some great books and movies.
